The Alert '24 workshop on CUET History, held on 22 December 2023, was organized by the PG Department of History and West Asian Studies. The workshop aimed to provide insight into the Common University Entrance Test (CUET), a significant milestone in the realm of higher education admissions.

Mr. Adnan OK, (CUT fourth rank holder), honored the event as the Chief Guest. His expertise in history and education enriched the discussions throughout the workshop. The workshop commenced with an overview of CUET, emphasizing its role as a standardized entrance test for admission to various universities and colleges across the country.

The workshop traced the evolution of CUET over the years, highlighting key milestones, changes in examination patterns, and the incorporation of technology to streamline the admission process.

Attendees discussed the impact of CUET on the broader education system, including its influence on curriculum development, pedagogical approaches, and student preparation strategies.

The workshop concluded with a discussion on the challenges faced by CUET, such as ensuring fairness and inclusivity, and proposed future directions for enhancing the effectiveness and relevance of the entrance test.

The Alert '24 workshop on CUET History provided a platform for meaningful discussions and reflections on the significance of the Common University Entrance Test. The event facilitated a deeper understanding of CUET's role in shaping the higher education admissions process and its broader implications for students, institutions, and the education system as a whole.

The welcome speech was delivered by career guidance cell coordinator, Ms.Jisha P J and the program was inaugurated by Dr. Abdul.Muneer V, Principal , EMEA College. Presidential address was delivered by Dr. Shiji Thomas, HOD of Microbiology. The Resource person of the program was Mr.Shaji Janardhanan, Beta institute of Biosciences. 30 students from M.Sc Microbiology participated in the session.

Objectives of Career Guidance

The objectives of career guidance for the CSIR-UGC NET exam are to:

- Increase awareness about the exam and its eligibility criteria
- Provide guidance on subject-specific preparation strategies
- Offer mock tests and practice papers for self-assessment
- Help students develop effective time management skills
- Motivate and encourage students to pursue research careers

Career guidance can provide several benefits to aspiring researchers, including:

- Improved understanding of the exam pattern and syllabus
- Enhanced subject knowledge and problem-solving skills
- Effective exam preparation strategies
- Increased confidence and motivation
- Access to valuable resources and support

By implementing effective career guidance strategies, department can empower students to successfully prepare for the CSIR-UGC NET exam and pursue their aspirations in research.

Career guidance plays a pivotal role in helping students achieve their academic and professional goals. By providing comprehensive and personalized guidance, department can significantly contribute to the success of students preparing for the CSIR-UGC NET exam and embarking on research careers. The Career Guidance Cell of the Microbiology Department has played a crucial role in empowering students to make informed career decisions and enhancing their employability. With continued dedication and support, the CGC will continue to thrive and serve as a valuable resource for microbiology student.

The PG Department of English at EMEA College of Arts and Science, Kondotty, conducted a focused UGC NET coaching program from 2 August 2023 to 7 February 2024, exclusively for MA English students of the department. The coaching sessions were scheduled from 3:30 PM to 4:30 PM on weekdays, designed to help postgraduate students prepare effectively for the UGC NET examination in English literature.

Objectives:

1. To provide targeted and systematic preparation for the UGC NET examination in English literature.
2. To ensure comprehensive understanding of key areas such as literary theory, criticism, and literary history.
3. To familiarize students with the exam pattern through practice tests and analysis of previous question papers.
4. To enhance students' critical thinking and analytical skills required for UGC NET.

Course Structure:

British Literature: Key periods and movements from Chaucer to contemporary writers.

American Literature: Major authors and literary developments.

Indian Literature in English: From early Indian English writers to contemporary voices.

Literary Theory and Criticism: Detailed focus on critical theories from Structuralism to Postmodernism.

Research Methodology: Understanding research techniques and methods relevant to UGC NET.

Report

The Research Department of Economics and the Economics Association of EMEA College of Arts and Science organized a comprehensive UGC NET Paper 1 orientation program on November 22nd at 10:00 AM in the Audio Visual Theatre. The session was for postgraduate students of EMEA College, was well organized and proved to be incredibly inspiring, shedding light on the prospects of higher education. The program was led by Mr. Navas Shareef, the CEO of CYRA LEARNINGS, who effectively highlighted the advantages of the NET Exam, offering valuable insights and strategies for exam preparation. Additionally, Mr. Abid Rahman, research scholar of Economics at EMEA College of Arts and Science, shared insights into the different sections and weightage of the exam, provided guidance on crucial topics and concepts. The orientation aimed to empower students by familiarizing them with the exam's structure, subject-specific advice, time management techniques, mock tests, recommended resources, problem-solving approaches, and test-taking strategies. Dr. Ibrahim Cholakkal, the teacher coordinator, presided over the event, inaugurated by Mr. Abdurazaque.PM (HoD in charge) and graced by Mr. Mohammed Nisar.TV(Assistant Professor of Economics) and Mr. Haseeb Rahman (Chairman, College Union). The resource persons effectively conveyed their knowledge, leaving students feeling more confident and prepared. The event was concluded Miss Fidha.C (Economics Club Coordinator) with the words of gratitude. 195 students from various PG Programmes were attended the orientation.
